

REMARKS

Claims 1-13 are pending. Pursuant to the Examiner's suggestion, applicant has amended claim 9 to recite "as compared to yeast cells not having been so cultured." This amendment is further discussed below in the context of the Examiner's rejections. No new matter is introduced by the amendment.

Rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph

The Examiner has rejected claim 9 and claims dependent therefrom as being indefinite. Specifically, the Examiner states that claim 9 is not clear on whether the plurality of yeast cells in the presence of an alternating electric field has been modified. The Examiner suggests that, to indicate that the yeast cells have been modified, applicant insert in claim 9, after the term "vascular dementia," the phrase "as compared to yeast cells not having been so cultured."

Applicant has amended claim 9 accordingly.

Double patenting rejections

Claims 1-13 stand rejected, under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting, as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of United States Patent 6,709,849 ("the '849 patent"). Claims 1-13 stand provisionally rejected, also under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting, as being unpatentable over claims 1-10 of copending United States Application 10/717,143 ("the '143 application"), claims 1-12 of copending United States Application 10/717,132 ("the '132 application"), and claims 1-12 of copending United States Application 10/717,133 ("the '133 application").

Ultra Biotech Limited, the assignee of this application, files herewith a terminal disclaimer under 37 C.F.R. § 1.321(b) and (c), disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the
